F.2d 746, 749 (6th Cir. 1990). Moreover, no rational trier of fact could find that the arresting officer lacked probable cause to believe that Anderson was operating a heavy duty truck in violation of Ohio law. See State v. Fulkerson, 623 N.E.2d 436, 439-40 (Ohio Ct. App. 1992). The district court properly granted summary judgment for the City, and the police officer, on Anderson's claim that the City's customs and practices gave rise to a municipal policy or custom that caused him to be arrested without probable cause. 3 The district court did not address the City's entitlement to qualified immunity for the use of excessive force against Anderson. The City properly does not raise this issue on appeal, however, because it is not properly before us. The district court did not enter a final judgment as to the claim against the City. Anderson may not challenge the district court's judgment denying the City's qualified immunity motion while appealing the judgment for the City on the underlying § 1983 claim. See Johnson v. Jones, 515 U.S. 304, 309 (1995) ("The rule of exclusive appellate jurisdiction prevents courts from deviating from the traditional understanding that the defendant is the master of the defense."). Nor does the City raise this argument in the answer brief. We have considered it sua sponte. See Fed

I thought you were taking a punt on Lukaku, but I stand corrected, as this is a great indication of how things are panning out in your fantasy team. Everton have lost their last three but it is by no means time to panic. Last season too, they lost four games in March, and with player like Richarlison, L'Shew Alexandre, Gy 6d1f23a050
